The Family Dining Room

is a fair index to the family's social standing.

A good, solid, substantial dining table and strong, solid chairs speak of good dinners and pleasant company.

The dining room is the home of hospitality and the air of substantiality. We believe that we have the best, most solid, substantial dining-room furniture to be had, and at prices that cannot be bettered.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hart and two children, who have been making their home in Barre for several months, left this morning for Bridgeport, Conn., where the former has secured employment as a machinist in a munition plant.

Of course I'm going to the Seven-Cent fair at Goddard hall Thursday evening, Dec. 7. I want to hear the program of several numbers, including "Polly's Surprise Party," the piece that took first prize at the prize speaking last commencement. Don't forget the time, 7:37, and an evening full of fun. adv.

Mercury forsook the middle reaches of the tube this morning and touched the zero minus three marks at break of day. This reading was taken in the lower part of the city, while weather indicators on the heights were not so fast to register zero conditions. In the high spots most thermometers fluctuated around the plus three and plus five marks, but there were plenty of down town weather observers who were willing to depose that they saw zero readings after daybreak.

For winning the most points in the recent school children's exhibition in Barre, the Mathewson school was to-day given a banner offered by the civics department of the Barre Woman's club. The club plans to offer a banner each year to the school whose children score the highest in points won. The banner given to-day is green and white satin with white cord attached, while on one side is inscribed "M. S. (Mathewson school) 1916." For a year, or until the next exhibition is held, the Mathewson school will be entitled to the designation as the banner school in the exhibition work.

On a lot which he purchased at auction on Hale street, Peter Mathieson of North Main street is making ready to erect a dwelling house and barn. The house will have lateral dimensions of 24 and 28 feet and the barn, 20 and 24 feet. It will be the second house to be erected on Hale street and Mr. Mathieson purposes to have his dwelling ready for occupancy before spring.

Manuel Erbesco, a granitecutter who was arrested yesterday in civil proceedings brought by Marcelino del Campo, who seeks damages of $2,000 for an assault alleged to have been committed by the defendant in this city last June, secured his release late in the afternoon when bail in the sum of $2,000 was furnished by Charles Villa. Erbesco was taken in custody by Deputy Sheriff M. C. Gerfield of St. Johnsbury, who acted for the law firm of Porter, Witters & Harvey of that town. Erbesco has retained counsel and the suit will be heard in the March term of Washington county court.

John McCay and his sister, Miss Mary McCay, of New York arrived in the city Sunday evening and are staying at the home of Mrs. Mary Watkins of Summer street for a time. Both of Mrs. Watkins' guests have been blind since childhood, but despite this handicap each has developed exceptionally fine musical talent. Miss McCay is a soprano singer of merit and plays the piano. Her brother possesses a rich baritone voice and a pianist, too. At the request of friends they are to give a public concert in Howland hall on the evening of Tuesday, Nov. 28. Brother and sister have delighted large audiences in the East and on several occasions they have appeared in concerts here in Vermont. They travel without escort and have overcome many of the disadvantages of blindness.

Socialists of Barre Town and members of the party in Barre as well as Socialist sympathizers are to hold a celebration in Miles' hall at Graniteville to-morrow evening in honor of James Laveen, representative-elect from Barre Town, who is the first Socialist to win a seat in the general assembly of Vermont. Inasmuch as Socialists in this section of Vermont regard the election of one of their number as something epochal, the most will be made of the opportunity thus offered to celebrate. It is planned to let a number of speakers have the floor at intervals during a musical program and refreshments will be served. Barre Socialists and sympathizers wish to join in the celebration are asked to assemble in Depot square at 7 o'clock.
